

IHH (In His Hands)

Meets on Monday evening in the Conference Room at the end of Turner Hall from 7:15 – 8:45

We gather to read out loud, comment and reflect on various religious and spiritual books. All are most welcome and, like all programs at Holy Cross, participation is voluntary. Come and see...

We are currently reading:

A masterpiece of satire, this classic has entertained and enlightened readers the world over with its sly and ironic portrayal of human life and foibles from the vantage point of Screwtape, a highly placed assistant to "Our Father" Below. At once wildly comic, deadly serious, and strikingly original, C. S. Lewis gives us the correspondence of the worldly-wise old devil to his nephew Wormwood, a novice demon in charge of securing the damnation of an ordinary young man. The Screwtape Letters is the most engaging account of temptation and triumph over it ever written.
