

Summer 2008

Update!!

Hey Gang,

Well, I forgot to put the 2008/2009 Participant Registrations in the last mailing so it is enclosed here. If you need more, you can get in on the website at:

<http://www.holycrosscv.org/ymreg.pdf>

Below you will find the latest information about our mini-workcamp at Books for the Barrio. We hope you can join us!

Lastly, in order to books the river rafting on Cache Creek trip in August, I need to be able to reserve at least ten 2-psorn boats. So, please sign up at the information Center as soon as you can to ensure that this trip is a go!

See you soon.

Blessings,

--Mark

One-day Mini-Workcamp (sorta)

Cost: 0

RSVP Deadline: July 13th

We will travel to Concord to learn about a local service organization called Books for the Barrios. I have visited the PI as it's nicknamed and have even visited some of the barrios. This is a great way for us to change the world and work of the 2nd Millennium Development Goal: ensure all people have a primary education. More information to follow this summer!

“Since 1981, BOOKS for the BARRIOS in Concord, California has been molding the future of millions of children all over the Philippines. To date, BOOKS for the BARRIOS, has sent over 9 million books to the most remote areas or "barrios" of the Philippines. They have built over 50 "Model of Excellence" schools topping the charts in national test scores.”
